For Sale : € 22,000

Description
A short walk from the village church and the community centre, this residential field sits within the everyday life of Agioi Trimithias, a welcoming village in the Nicosia district. Schools, restaurants and cafés are all within walking distance, so village life is never far from your door.

The ground lies level and the field has direct road access, giving a no-nonsense starting point for anyone planning a home here. Its residential zoning offers room for a home among the houses and familiar landmarks of the village.

Picture mornings that begin with a stroll past the church to a café, afternoons when the school run is done on foot, and evenings spent close to the people and places that give a village its warmth. Neighbouring Paliometocho lies nearby too.

The sale is a 1/2 share of the field. What stays with you is the setting: level village land close to the church and to the heart of community life in Agioi Trimithias.
