The plot features a regular rectangular shape and a frontage of approximately 10.41 metres, offering possibilities for functional architectural planning and future residential use, subject to the final subdivision arrangements and necessary planning approvals.
The property benefits from a right of way, providing an access arrangement to the land. The exact route, width and legal terms of this right should be verified through the relevant title deed and cadastral documentation.

These figures are indicative only and do not establish independent development rights for a half share. Actual development potential depends on the ownership structure, final subdivision, applicable planning regulations and necessary approvals.
The property's rectangular shape, 10.41-metre frontage and residential planning characteristics make it an interesting option for buyers seeking land with potential for future residential development.
Located in the wider Geri area, the property offers access to residential neighbourhoods and everyday amenities, including schools, supermarkets, shops, pharmacies and other essential services.
Important points of interest in the wider area include Geri Village Centre | University of Cyprus | Athalassa National Forest Park | Latsia | Nicosia General Hospital.
