For Sale : € 42,000

Description
On the edge of village life in Kornos, this residential field for sale offers room to picture a family home, with the village centre, schools and a supermarket only a short drive away. Cafés and restaurants are close at hand too, so everyday errands stay simple while the setting keeps its authentic Cypriot village character.

The land sits within a residential zone, a natural fit for a home of your own. It has an even surface and direct road access, which keeps the practical side uncomplicated. Around it, parks and green spaces add a touch of openness, and the neighbouring villages of Pyrga and Sia are a short drive away.

Getting further afield is just as easy. Main roads run close by, motorway junctions are a drive away, and Larnaca International Airport is about 20 km from the village, which makes coastal towns and the wider island easy to reach.

This sale is for a three-fifths share of the land.

A residential setting in Kornos with village amenities close by and good links in every direction: a sound base for a home rooted in the authentic side of Cyprus.
