For Sale : € 180,000

Description
In the heart of Kyperounta, a building of real scale awaits someone with vision. This village home spreads across four levels: a ground floor, a first floor with an attic and two basement levels below. Together they offer around 960 m² of interior space on a residential plot of 465 m².

The plot is regular in shape. It sits on sloping ground with a south-facing orientation and has direct road access. The building dates from around 1990 and was never completed, so it is ready for a buyer to finish it to their own taste. It is currently occupied.

Daily life here keeps things simple. Restaurants, cafés and public service offices are within walking distance. Supermarkets, shops, medical centres and pharmacies are a short drive away, and so are the neighbouring villages of Chandria and Agridia. The main roads are a drive away, connecting the village with the wider region, while village life carries on close by.

Very few village properties offer this much space to shape. With four levels, a south-facing plot and the everyday rhythm of Kyperounta around it, this is a project with genuine room to grow.
