For Sale : € 14,000

Description
Life in Drouseia moves at a village pace, with restaurants and cafés right beside this field and the heart of the community only a short stroll away. For anyone searching for a field for sale in Drouseia, this one offers a setting rooted in authentic Cypriot village life. Supermarkets, shops, parks and green spaces are all within walking distance.

The land itself is uncomplicated: smooth, even ground on residential land, the kind of setting where a home in the village becomes easy to imagine. Mornings could start with coffee nearby, and evenings could end with dinner at a local taverna without ever reaching for the car keys.

When you want more, the neighbouring villages of Ineia and Kato Arodes are a short drive away. The coastline is within easy reach too, including the unspoilt beach at Toxeftra, and Paphos International Airport is about 25 km away.

This sale is for a one-third share of the field. It offers an open piece of residential land in the heart of a welcoming hillside community, where the cafés, shops and green spaces of village life are all close at hand.
