Description
Village life in the Paphos countryside starts here. This Cyprus field in Polemi sits close to the village centre, with supermarkets and shops within walking distance. Restaurants, cafés, schools and green spaces are a short drive away, and neighbouring Stroumpi and Psathi are within easy reach.

The land itself is simple and uncomplicated. It is flat, almost rectangular in shape and faces south, and it has direct road access, so getting on and off the plot is straightforward. Its 967 m² is zoned for residential use, giving it a clear purpose as the setting for a home.

Polemi offers authentic Cypriot village life and a slower, close-knit pace, while the main roads and the Limassol–Paphos motorway are a drive away when the coast and the town call. This sale is for a half share of the land.

Level, south-facing residential land with easy access, in a village where everyday essentials are close at hand.
