Description
For sale: a field in Platanistasa, on agricultural land a short distance from the village centre, with the neighbouring villages of Fterikoudi and Alona also close by. The plot covers 1143 m² of sloping ground with an irregular outline, set in open countryside away from dense development.

A stream passes through the land, a natural feature of this hillside setting. The zoning is agricultural, so the land suits farming or planting on a modest scale, or a practical addition to nearby rural land. A versatile piece of farmland on a gentle slope, with its own stream running through it.
