For Sale : € 60

Description
A small field in an open countryside setting just outside the village of Polystypos, in the Nicosia district. The land runs alongside a stream, which forms one of its edges, and has an irregular shape with uneven ground. The field measures 177 m² in total.

The neighbouring village of Livadia is within walking distance. The village centre, Alithinou and a petrol station are a short drive away, and main roads are a drive away. The land itself has no direct road access. This sale is for a one-quarter share of the field. It is a modest, uncomplicated piece of rural land with a stream along its boundary.
