For Sale : € 192,000

Description
A generous sweep of flat land, bordered by a green area and touched along one side by a stream, sits right beside Latsia. This residential field for sale in Agioi Konstantinos and Eleni, Dali, offers open space with the convenience of the capital close at hand. Its residential zoning points to a home in a setting that feels open rather than hemmed in.

The land is level and has direct road access around its edges, so arriving is simple. The Nicosia–Limassol motorway is within walking distance, and the southern orbital motorway is a short drive away, making trips across the island uncomplicated. Supermarkets and shops, petrol stations, a café or restaurant, sports venues and a park are all a short drive from here. The historic site of Agios Sozomenos is a pleasant outing further afield.

Dali and its neighbourhoods are an established part of suburban Nicosia, with everyday needs met nearby. This sale is for a one-sixth share of the land. It offers flat residential land with green surroundings, a stream alongside and the motorway almost on the doorstep.
