Description
In the historic centre of Dali, where cafés and restaurants sit within walking distance, this field in Panagia Evangelistria offers a rare chance to put down roots in an established neighbourhood with real character. The land sits on residential, town-centre ground, the kind of setting where a home feels part of village life rather than set apart from it. At 535 m², the plot is a well-proportioned rectangle with a flat, even surface and direct road access, so it is simple to picture and easy to plan around. An old, abandoned house in a dilapidated state stands on the land. Daily life here is uncomplicated. Schools, supermarkets, shops and public service offices are a short drive away, as is Chalkanoras Stadium for match days. Nearby Potamia and the Nicosia - Larnaca Motorway keep the capital and the coast within easy reach. Main roads are within walking distance too. What stays with you is the location: a flat, honest piece of land in the old heart of Dali, with the neighbourhood's cafés and its sense of community right on the doorstep.
