For Sale : € 115,000

Description
Village life sets the tone in Vasa Koilaniou, and this residential field sits right in the middle of it, between the heart of the community and its church. Restaurants and cafés are within walking distance, so an evening coffee or a long lunch in the village can become part of the everyday rhythm. The land covers a large 5,017 m² on a sloping, irregular plot. Its residential zoning leaves room for a home shaped around the slope, set within the traditional charm of a village where the pace of city life feels far away. A short frontage on a public road gives the land direct road access. Beyond the village, neighbouring Omodos is a short drive away, and in the wider region the Arminou Reservoir offers a change of scene for a weekend outing. The village centre, the church and the cafés are all within easy reach, and there is generous ground for a home of your own design.
