Description
Village life in Agros, in the Limassol district, sets the scene for this two-storey house with an attic, a home that unfolds gently over three levels. The village centre and neighbouring Agios Ioannis are both a short drive away, and Paphos International Airport is about 50 km off.

Downstairs, an open-plan living, dining and kitchen area forms the heart of the home, with a bathroom on the same floor. Upstairs, two bedrooms share the level with a second bathroom, while the attic gives useful storage space.

Outdoors is where this house comes alive. Verandas and a yard invite long evenings in the open air, and a barbecue kiosk turns a simple supper into an occasion to share with friends. There is uncovered parking, and the house has direct road access.

The house is currently occupied. A village home built around time spent outdoors, with the life of Agros close at hand.
