For Sale : € 254,000

Description
Aglantzia's residential streets, close to the main campus of the University of Cyprus, set the scene for this three-storey building, completed around 2011. The heart of Nicosia is a short drive away, as are everyday shops and cafés.

Three apartments make up the offer. On the first floor, a two-bedroom apartment sits beside a one-bedroom apartment, and a second one-bedroom apartment occupies the floor above. Each opens onto its own covered veranda, a sheltered spot for a morning coffee or an unhurried evening meal.

At ground level, every apartment has a covered parking space beneath the building, and two of them also come with a storage room. The building stands on a flat plot with direct road access on two sides, which makes arriving and parking simple.

The sale is a 3/8 share of the building, corresponding to these three apartments. Four bedrooms across three homes, all at one well-placed Aglantzia address.
