Description
In the heart of Omerie, Nicosia, this ground-floor shop sits right beside the new Nicosia Town Hall, with restaurants and cafés as its neighbours and the town centre within easy reach. It is a setting shaped by civic life and café culture, where a business can feel part of the city's everyday rhythm.

The shop forms part of a complex built in 1960, a building surrounded by streets on every side. Inside, an open-plan ground floor gives you a flexible space to shape around your trade, while a mezzanine above provides storage and keeps the main floor free for customers and displays.

The shop is vacant, and the commercial setting suits a business of your own or letting to another trader. Around it, Omerie offers the kind of central address that puts a business among the cafés, the Town Hall and the life of the capital.

A versatile shop in one of Nicosia's central quarters, next to the Town Hall and the cafés around it, is well worth a visit.
