For Sale : € 114,000

Description
Picture a warm afternoon by the communal swimming pool, then a slow evening under the pergola in your own garden. This two-storey semi-detached house sits within a residential complex in Dromolaxia, a setting made for easy, everyday living.

Built around 2015, the home has three bedrooms and a bathroom across its two floors. Air conditioning keeps the rooms comfortable through the summer, and a veranda gives you a spot for morning coffee in the open air. Fencing encloses the outdoor space and frames the garden around the house.

Schools, banks and shops are close by, so daily errands stay simple. Larnaca town and its airport are both a short drive away. The Larnaca Salt Lake is within a short drive too, for weekends spent outdoors.

The house comes with a 5033/100000 share of the plot shared by the complex. It is a comfortable home with a pool, a garden and Larnaca within easy reach.
