Description
Three adjacent agricultural fields in Kakopetria make up a single holding of 18,062 m², close to the centre of neighbouring Galata. Together they give a sizeable area of farmland to work, plant or keep as one piece of ground.

Access to the fields is by a pathway along one boundary, and the main roads of the area are easy to reach. The village of Sinaoros is a short drive away.

This is a large, joined area of agricultural land in the Kakopetria area.
