Set within the city of Nicosia, in the Panagia and Kaimakli area, this three-storey warehouse brings office space and storage together under one roof. Main roads and motorway junctions are within easy reach, keeping the wider road network close at hand.

The ground floor holds a reception area and office space, alongside a dining room, a kitchen and a storage area. On the first floor sits an administrative area with a restroom, while the second floor is given over to a dedicated storage room. The layout keeps visitors, paperwork and stock each in their own place, with somewhere to pause for lunch in between.

The building dates from around 1976 and offers 715 m² of covered space on a sizeable plot of 1,480 m². The property is currently occupied.

Workable rooms on every level, dedicated storage and quick links to the city's main routes make this a practical industrial base in a convenient urban setting.
