For Sale : € 100,000

Description
Argaka's beach is only a short drive away, and the heart of the village sits close by. This residential field brings the sea and the everyday life of a Paphos village within easy reach.

The land covers 2,342 m² on a sloping site and fronts a road, so it has direct road access. It is zoned for residential use, which gives room for a home of up to two floors.

Picture days shaped by village life, with the centre nearby for daily errands and the coast close enough for an afternoon by the water. The town of Polis Chrysochous is a drive away for a wider choice of shops and services. Paphos International Airport is about 40 km away, which keeps journeys to and from the island straightforward.

This is a sizeable piece of residential land with the beach and the village both close at hand, and it is waiting for the home you have in mind.
