For Sale : € 140,000

Description
Between the UCLan university campus and Pyla's stadium, this level residential field sits within the everyday life of the town. Lectures, match days and village routine all unfold close by, giving the land a lived-in, connected setting rather than a remote one.

The ground is flat throughout, which makes it easy to walk the land and picture what could rise here. The residential zoning points to a home, with construction permitted up to two floors. Standing on this even ground, you can imagine a house taking shape with the town all around it.

The Larnaca–Agia Napa motorway is easy to reach from the area, so Larnaca and the coast towards Agia Napa feel close. The village of Oroklini is a short drive away.

A distribution agreement is in place for the field. The sale is a half share of the 11,372 m² field, about 5,686 m².

Flat land in a residential setting between the campus and the stadium, with the motorway close: a corner of Pyla well worth a visit.
