Description
In Koili, a short distance from the village square, lies a field of 16,054 m² zoned for agricultural use, suited to farming or planting. It fronts a registered road, which gives it direct road access. The Paphos–Koili road runs close by, and the Limassol–Paphos Motorway is a drive away, connecting the land with the rest of the Paphos district. The villages of Tsada and Kamares are also a short drive from the field. This is a sizeable piece of agricultural land with its own road frontage in Koili.
