Description
A short way from the heart of Avgorou, this large residential field faces a designated green area, which gives the land a real sense of openness and privacy. Nature and open space surround it, yet the village centre, with its shops, cafés and services, is close at hand.

The field covers 8,750 m² and is zoned for residential use, with up to two floors allowed. Roads run along three of its sides, so it has direct road access and plenty of freedom in how a project is laid out. There is room here for a residential project, whether a group of family homes or a set of private villas.

Daily life is easy to manage from here. Schools are a short drive away, and regional roads link Avgorou with Paralimni, Ayia Napa and Larnaca, putting the wider east of the island within easy reach.

Authentic village life lies close by and open green space stretches in front. That leaves room to shape the homes that will one day stand on this land.
