Description
Psematismenos keeps the gentle rhythm of village life. This sizeable residential plot of 6,021 m² sits within its peaceful, natural surroundings, away from the bustle of the city yet never cut off from it.

Zoned for residential use, the land gives you room for a home of up to two floors, shaped around your own brief, from the layout to the materials. Its scale also suits a low-density residential project in keeping with the village's calm character. A road runs along one of its boundaries and gives direct access.

Everyday life stays simple. The village centre, shops and cafés are a short drive away, and so are the beaches, with Governor's Beach a little further along the coast. The motorway between Nicosia and Limassol is easy to reach, and Larnaca International Airport is about 25 km away.

It is a generous piece of village land, where a life close to nature and within reach of the sea can take shape.
