Description
In the tranquil village of Zoopigi, just steps from the community centre and the youth centre, this generous house sits on 4,235 m² of land made up of three plots. Village life is close at hand, and nearby Kalo Chorio is a short drive away.

On the ground floor, an open-plan living, dining and kitchen area forms the heart of the home, with a pantry and a guest WC alongside. Two office rooms give you a dedicated place to work or study, away from the everyday flow of the house.

An internal staircase and an elevator rise to the upper floor. Here the bedrooms each have their own en-suite bathroom and walk-in closet, joined by a kitchenette and two large, partly covered verandas made for long evenings outdoors. This upper floor is not yet finished.

Below, the basement holds two covered parking spaces and a storage unit, and a separate workshop adds practical space. With its large grounds, its flexible layout and a peaceful village around it, this is a home with plenty of room to shape around the way you live.
