For Sale : € 105,000

Description
Set within Peyia, between Pegeia Forest and the coast, this residential field sits in a village where outdoor living and the Cyprus climate set the pace. The beaches are a short drive away, and so is Coral Bay, so a swim or a stroll by the sea can easily be part of an ordinary day.

The land is flat and extends to 2,630 m². It has direct access from two roads, which together give it a generous frontage. Its residential zoning offers room for a home, with up to two floors permitted.

Picture a house of your own taking shape on this level ground, with village life around you and the sand within easy reach. Paphos International Airport is about 20 km away, which keeps trips home and visits from friends simple.

The sale is of a one-third share of the field. Flat land, two roads and the Pegeia coast close by make this a setting to imagine a relaxed island life.
