For Sale : € 80,000

Description
Mountain landscapes, a cool climate and the traditional charm of village life shape this corner of Limassol's hill country. On the rural outskirts of Kato Platres, away from the bustle of the city, this land offers a peaceful setting.

Two neighbouring residential fields come together here as one parcel of 2,881 m². A long frontage on an asphalt road gives the land direct road access. The ground is inclined and covered in natural vegetation, so it keeps the character of the hillside around it. Its residential zoning leaves room for a home of up to two floors, set among the slopes.

Troodos National Forest Park lies within walking distance, close enough for the forest to become part of everyday life. Pano Platres is a short drive away for village shops, cafés and the daily round.

The sale is for a half share of the land. It is a quiet piece of mountain country with cooler summers and the forest a walk away.
