For Sale : € 340,000

Description
On a corner plot in a quiet residential part of Agios Nikolaos, Lakatameia, this four-bedroom semi-detached house offers a home with space for the whole household to settle in and spread out.

The ground floor centres on an open-plan living and dining area, a natural place for the family to gather at the end of the day. The separate kitchen keeps a small sitting area of its own, a cosy corner for a morning coffee while breakfast is under way. A guest toilet and a storage room complete this level. Upstairs, four bedrooms include a master with its own en-suite, alongside a main bathroom. Above them, the attic adds an open-plan space and extra storage, a flexible room to shape around your needs.

Outside, the yard and covered verandas invite you to sit out in the evening air, and covered parking keeps the car out of the sun.

Schools and everyday shopping are a short drive away, and the city centre is within easy reach. A comfortable family home in a settled residential neighbourhood, with room for daily life to unfold.
