For Sale : € 125,000

Description
Raised on a gentle slope in Moniatis, this residential plot looks out over a sweeping panorama of the surrounding mountain landscape. The elevation earns the view. From this rise, the hills open out across the horizon, a backdrop that changes with the seasons and the hours of the day.

The land covers 1,030 m² in a regular, easy-to-read shape, with direct road access along a generous frontage. Its residential zoning leaves room for a home of up to two floors, so a house could be shaped around the outlook and its sloping ground.

The setting is a rural neighbourhood with a slower, unhurried rhythm. The village centre, shops and cafés are a short drive away, and so is Troodos National Forest Park, which brings forest walks and open green space within easy reach for weekends and quiet afternoons.

In the end, it is the view that stays with you: a stretch of mountain country laid out below, waiting for a home to face it.
