Limassol,...

For Sale : € 480,000

Description
A well-established neighbourhood in Agia Fylaxis, Limassol, is the setting for this residential plot of 516 m². Schools are close by, and supermarkets and shops can be reached on foot, so everyday errands become an easy stroll rather than a drive.

The land is regular in shape, flat and even, so it is easy to picture a home taking form here. It has direct road access along its frontage, with a pedestrian pavement running beside one boundary. The residential zoning allows a home of up to three floors, enough to plan for comfortable living over several levels.

When you do need the car, the motorway linking Limassol with Nicosia is within easy reach. The city's wider rhythm stays close without crowding the street.

A level plot in an established part of Limassol, with the essentials of daily life nearby and room for a home of your own.
