Description
Village life in Alassa sets the tone for this large field in the Limassol district. The village centre is a short drive away, and so is the Arkolia nature spot, a pleasant escape for walks and time outdoors. Nearby villages such as Korfi and Monagri add to the rural character of the area around you. With 16,389 m² of land, there is a real sense of scale here. Most of the land lies in a residential zone, with room on that part for a home of up to two floors. Electricity and water supplies are close by. Part of the land falls within a protection zone. Picture a home of your own taking shape here, with village life around you and nature never far from the door. It is a setting for a project made at your own pace, rooted in the everyday rhythm of a Limassol village. A distribution agreement is in place. The sale is for a 50% share of the field. In Alassa, the first plans for a new home could begin on this land.
