Description
The coastline is only a short drive away from this field in Paralimni, close to the Pernera area. It is a setting where the sea feels part of the neighbourhood, and where a day can easily end by the water.

The land extends to 3,498 m², a sizeable and uncomplicated piece of ground. It lies in a zone set aside for tourist use, where buildings of up to two floors are permitted. That gives the land a clear general purpose and plenty of room to consider it.

Restaurants and cafés are within walking distance, so a coffee or an evening meal out can be a simple stroll. Protaras and the beaches are a short drive away. Larnaca International Airport is about 40 km away, which keeps the journey in and out straightforward.

An honest, open stretch of Paralimni land, with the coast and the everyday life of the area close at hand.
