Description
Set in the farmland around Choirokoitia, in the Larnaca district, this agricultural field covers 38,797 m². Its size gives plenty of room for farming or planting, and a public path runs along one of its boundaries.

The Choirokoitia village centre is a short drive away, as is the neighbouring village of Tochni. The Nicosia–Limassol motorway runs close by, connecting the area with the rest of the district. This is a sizeable agricultural field in the Choirokoitia area.
