Description
Ten adjoining fields make up this large rural holding of 164,904 m² in the countryside of Choirokoitia. The village centre is a short drive away, as are the neighbouring villages of Tochni and Psematismenos. The land is zoned partly for agriculture, where farming is the natural use. Part of the land lies within a protection zone. The land has no direct road access. Several of the fields are currently requisitioned by the Ministry of Defence. Together, the ten fields form one continuous stretch of land.
