Description
Kallepeia, in the Paphos district, is the setting for this sizeable agricultural field of 15,064 m². The centre of the village is a short drive away, and so are the neighbouring villages of Stroumpi and Koili.

The land is zoned in part for agriculture, which suits farming and planting. Part of it falls within a protection zone. The field has no direct road access. It is a large agricultural holding in the countryside of Kallepeia.
