Description
Village life is close at hand on this large residential field in Peristerona, in the Paphos district. The heart of the village is only a short way off, shops can be reached on foot, and the local tavernas and coffee shops bring a familiar, welcoming rhythm to the day.

The land covers 11,706 m², giving generous room for a home shaped around your own ideas. Its residential zoning makes everyday family living its natural use, with the comfort of a settled village community right around it.

Beyond Peristerona, the neighbouring villages of Trimithousa and Meladeia are a short drive away, and so is Evretou Lake, a lovely spot for an unhurried afternoon outdoors. It is a setting where daily errands stay simple and nature is never far.

A sizeable piece of Peristerona, waiting for the home you have in mind.
