Description
Five adjacent agricultural fields make up this large stretch of land in Analiontas, in the Nicosia district. Together they cover 37,460 m², with the village centre close by and the neighbouring villages of Kampia and Kataliontas a short drive away.

The agricultural zoning suits farming and planting across the combined fields. An abandoned farm stands within the land. For wider travel, the Nicosia - Limassol Motorway is a drive away.

This is one continuous area of farmland on the edge of Analiontas village.
