Description
Panoramic views of the sea and the surrounding countryside open out across four fields in Pissouri, a picturesque hillside village that has grown into a popular resort while keeping its unspoiled landscape. Sandy Blue Flag beaches are a short drive away, and the touristic centre of Pissouri Bay lies close by.

Together the fields cover 44,683 m² of land zoned for touristic use. Two of them have generous road frontage, giving the land direct road access, and a road runs between two of the fields. The land is suited to a touristic complex or a residential complex of houses, with room to let the design follow the views and the setting.

Pissouri sits centrally between Limassol and Paphos, with Paphos International Airport about 20 km away. Restaurants are within easy reach, as are the dramatic white cliffs of Cape Aspro, part of the coastal scenery that gives this corner of the island its pull.

Here is a sizeable stretch of land where a project can take its cue from the sea views, the hillside village and the beaches around it.
