Description
Panoramic views of the sea and the surrounding countryside open out from four adjoining fields in Pissouri. This picturesque hillside village has grown into a popular resort, with sandy Blue Flag beaches, an unspoiled landscape and a central position between Limassol and Paphos.

Together the fields cover 161,527 m² of touristic land, close to the tourist centre of Pissouri Bay. The land offers room for a tourist development or a residential complex of houses, and one of the fields has direct road access.

Aphrodite Hills Golf Club and the white cliffs of Cape Aspro are within easy reach, and Paphos International Airport is about 20 km away. It is a setting shaped by the coast: the beaches a short drive off, the village and its restaurants close by, and the open view over the sea from the land itself. One of the four fields is offered as a 64.1% share.

Sea views, a sizeable spread of land and Pissouri Bay close at hand come together here in a setting worth seeing in person.
