Description
Close to the heart of Kelokedara, a village in the Paphos district, this residential field offers a sizeable 2,342 m² in authentic village surroundings. The life of the village centre lies close by, and neighbouring villages such as Trachypedoula and Agios Georgios are a short drive away.

Its residential zoning gives room for a home of your own, set among the homes and familiar rhythms of a welcoming Cypriot village. It is a place to imagine a life shaped by the village around it rather than by the pace of a town. The land has no direct road access.

The wider area carries deep roots: the Sanctuary of the Paphian Aphrodite is a drive away, and Paphos International Airport lies about 15 km from the village. Here is a generous piece of residential land, close to the centre of Kelokedara, with village life right around it.
