Village life in Frenaros sets the scene for this two-storey residential building, with shops and cafés an easy walk away. A morning coffee, a quick errand, a relaxed meal out: the everyday rhythm of the village sits close at hand.

Each floor offers its own spacious living area and its own covered veranda, shaded places to sit out and enjoy the life of the neighbourhood. The ground floor dates from 1985 and the upper floor followed in 1990, giving the building two distinct levels on a plot of 359 m², with a parking space alongside.

Beyond the village, Sotira and Liopetri are a short drive away, widening the circle of local life around Frenaros. The building is currently occupied, and the sale is of a 50% share.
