For Sale : € 295,000

Description
In Episkopi, everyday life can happen on foot. Schools and a choice of restaurants and cafés lie within walking distance of this detached home, so the morning school run and an unhurried coffee are a short stroll away.

Built in 2007, the house rises over two storeys, with generous space to spread out across both floors. Uncovered verandas give you a place to step outside, whether for a breath of evening air or a meal in the open. The house sits on a plot in a residential setting, with direct road access.

The neighbourhood keeps life simple. Errands, a meal out or a walk to school all start from your own door, and the rest of Episkopi is a short drive away.

The house is currently occupied. The sale covers a 48.53% share of the land.

A detached house on two floors, with village life and its schools and cafés within easy walking reach.
