Description
In Agios Antonios, a neighbourhood of Nicosia where homes, shops and places of learning sit side by side, this ground-floor apartment brings a generous gift: a 218 m² yard for its exclusive use, along with a veranda. It is outdoor space to make your own, right where you live. Inside, an open-plan living and dining room flows into the kitchen, a natural place for long family meals and evenings with friends. Four bedrooms follow, two of them en-suite, with a further bathroom and a guest toilet. Ceramic tiles run throughout. VRV air conditioning and underfloor electric heating keep the rooms comfortable whatever the season, and an alarm system adds peace of mind. A parking space and a storage room in the basement are reserved for the apartment. Everyday life is easy here. Schools and parks are within walking distance, and the University of Cyprus campus is close by. When the day is done, the yard is waiting, a city home with room to breathe.
