For Sale : € 500,000

Description
Engomi is an established Nicosia suburb with a true neighbourhood feel. Cafés and restaurants are within walking distance, and the heart of the capital is close at hand. Here, among homes and residential developments, two separate apartment blocks stand side by side with direct road access.

Each block rises three floors and holds 12 apartments, 24 homes in all, in a mix of one- and two-bedroom layouts. One block has three two-bedroom apartments and one one-bedroom apartment on every floor, while the other has two of each. At ground level, both blocks set aside parking spaces and storage rooms, the practical touches that town life depends on.

Both buildings are unfinished. What they hold is a residential undertaking on a generous scale, in a suburb where a morning coffee or an evening meal is only a stroll away and Strovolos is a short drive off.

The sale is a 1/3 share of the property.

Two blocks of homes in a neighbourhood with everyday life on its doorstep, in one of the capital's settled suburbs.
