For Sale : € 362,000

Description
Dali's town centre and its schools are both within an easy walk of these three apartments, which sit together on the first floor of a block in the residential neighbourhood of Panagia Evangelistria. The streets around are lined with homes, and the area offers all kinds of everyday amenities.

Two of the apartments have three bedrooms and the third has two. Each one centres on an open-plan living and dining area with its own kitchen. The main bedroom in every apartment has an en-suite, and there is a further bathroom for family or guests. Ceramic tiles run underfoot, the windows are double glazed, and provisions are in place for split units and storage heaters. Each apartment also has its own covered parking space on the ground floor, and the property has a veranda for time outdoors.

Life here can keep a gentle, local rhythm: children walking to school, an errand in town that needs no car, and evenings back home with the family. The sale is an 11/50 share of the property.

Three homes under one roof, close to the heart of Dali.
