Sea views and a beach close at hand give this field in Pomos...

For Sale : € 290,000

Description
Sea views and a beach close at hand give this field in Pomos its pull. It sits in a residential setting of scattered homes and open parcels, with the village centre a short drive away and a closer connection to nature all around. The village of Pachyammos is a short drive along the coast as well.

The land covers 2,936 m² and has a fairly regular shape with a gentle slope, ground where a future home could be placed to take in the sea view. The zoning is residential, with up to two floors allowed, and the land can be connected to water, electricity and telecommunications. A frontage along a public road on one side and a dirt track on the other gives it direct road access.

Away from the plot, Pomos Reservoir is a short drive away for walks in green surroundings. Picture a home of your own here, looking out to the sea, with a relaxed coastal life and the beach always within easy reach.
