For Sale : € 290,000

Description
Just outside the village of Meladeia, among open countryside and scattered homes, this three-bedroom house stands on a large plot of 3,679 m² with its own swimming pool.

Inside, an open-plan living and dining area runs into the kitchen, giving one shared space for cooking, meals and long evenings together. Each of the three bedrooms has its own en-suite, and a further bathroom serves guests. Built in 2006, the house offers 180 m² of covered living space.

Outdoors is where the home comes into its own. A large yard holds the private pool, so a swim is only a few steps from the door, and the veranda gives a place to sit out as the day cools. Evretou Lake is a short drive away, and so is the village centre.

The house is currently occupied.

A home with room to spread out, inside and around the pool, on the edge of a Paphos village.
