For Sale : € 275,000

Description
A short way from the heart of Pano Deftera, this large, level field sits among family homes and undeveloped parcels. Lakatamia is close by, and there is an easy route towards Nicosia.

Its 4,181 m² of flat, even ground lies in a residential zone, with room for a home of up to two floors and generous land around it. A stretch of road frontage gives the field direct road access, and electricity, water and telecommunications can be brought to the site.

Picture a family house rising on this open, level ground. The village centre is moments away, and schools, shops and cafés are a short drive off. Nicosia stays close enough for work or an evening in town, while everyday life keeps to the easy rhythm of the village.

Village life close at hand, the city within reach, and a sizeable stretch of flat land ready to be shaped into a home of your own.
