For Sale : € 263,000

Description
Paralimni's town centre on one side, the sea on the other, and both only a short drive away. This residential field sits in an area where homes and holiday developments stand alongside open parcels of land. The beaches and the seaside village of Kapparis are within easy reach, so a swim or a lazy lunch by the water can become part of an ordinary day.

The land is zoned for residential use, with building allowed up to two floors. It has direct road access, with frontage on two sides, which makes the plot easy to reach and to picture as a place to live.

Imagine settling into a Mediterranean town where the coast is part of everyday life, with the bustle of the centre close by. Larnaca International Airport is about 40 km away, which keeps trips to and from the island straightforward.

The sale covers a 3/4 share of the field. Under a distribution agreement, this share corresponds to three plots under division.
