For Sale : € 250,000

Description
Close to the centre of Doros, two adjoining parcels come together as one sizeable stretch of land of 12,375 m². It sits among village homes and open ground, with neighbouring Monagri and Agios Georgios a short drive away, along with shops, cafés and schools for everyday needs.

The land has an irregular shape and a sloping surface laid out in terraces, giving it a stepped, natural form that follows the lie of the ground. Part of it lies in a residential zone, with room for a home, while another part falls within a protection zone. Water, electricity and telecommunications could be brought to the land. The land has no direct road access.

Terraced ground, a residential part with room for a home and the village centre close at hand make this a setting in which to picture a life rooted in the rhythm of a Limassol village.
