Description
A short walk from the centre of Polemi, a village in the Paphos district, this sizeable field of 5,389 m² offers room to put down roots in everyday village life. Supermarkets and shops are within walking distance, and neighbouring Stroumpi is a short drive away.

The land lies in a residential zone, with room for a home of up to two floors. A generous stretch of frontage along a road gives it direct road access, and around it, homes sit alongside parcels of land that are still open.

Picture a home of your own taking shape here, with a stroll to the village shops for your morning errands and plenty of land around you when you return. Cafés, restaurants and schools are a short drive away, so daily life stays simple.

A large piece of residential land, close to the heart of a Paphos village, with village life on your doorstep.
