For Sale : € 215,000

Description
Schools and supermarkets within walking distance, shops a short stroll away and Nicosia's horse racing club practically next door: this semi-detached house in Agios Georgios, Agios Dometios, sits in a residential neighbourhood where everyday life stays close at hand.

Inside, a living and dining area gives the household one shared space for meals, conversation and long evenings together, with a kitchen to cook in. Three bedrooms and a bathroom make room for family life, and a guest toilet keeps the bathroom free when friends call round. Outside, a veranda offers a place for morning coffee or an evening spent in the open air.

Picture the school run done on foot, the weekly shop without the car, and the sports grounds beside the house adding a little life to the street around you. The sale covers a 1/2 share of the house.

Three bedrooms, a veranda and a neighbourhood that has everything within reach: a home where the rhythm of daily life comes easily.
